

The Honorable Edmund F. Mansure
Administrator, General Services Administration
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Mansure:

This is in reply to your letter to Mr. Dulles dated 27 April 1954, which requested review of the proposed revisions of Section 213.00, Chapter II, and Section 202.00, Chapter III, Title 1, Personal Property Management, Regulations of the General Services Administration. These revisions, which relate to the exchange or sale of personal property and application of the proceeds to the purchase of similar items, have been reviewed, and this Agency has no recommendations for any changes.

This Agency is generally exempt from the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, pursuant to Section 602(d) 17 of that Act in conjunction with the Central Intelligence Act of 1949 (Public Law 110 - 81st Congress, 1st Session). Nevertheless, it is our intention to follow its provisions and those General Services Administration Regulations except when otherwise dictated by operational considerations.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
Deputy Director
